What you need to know about the away from Home Terminal:

Rule G

- Employees reporting for duty, on duty, on CSX property, or occupying facilities provided by CSX are prohibited from having in their possession, using, or being under the influence of alcoholic beverages or intoxicants.
- Employees shall neither report for duty nor perform service while under the influence of, nor use while on duty or on CSX property, any drug, medication, or other substance, including prescribed medication that will in any way adversely affect the employees' alertness, coordination, reaction, response, or safety.
- The illegal use and/or possession of a drug, narcotic, or other substance that affects alertness, coordination, reaction, response, or safety is prohibited while on or off duty.

Please Remember:

If you are checked in to the hotel by your CLC card, or other railroad provided payment, you are considered on CSX property. Please note that Rule G is very broad, and includes all forms of intoxicants, including prescribed medication. CSX employees are subject to Rule G Charges while on or off duty, provided that they are on company property, and are subject to the same penalties.

The Operation Redblock mark off is permitted at the away from home terminal. Please protect yourself and your co-workers!
